a lease agreement

1. Parties/Premises:

This Lease is made this 27th of August, 2014, by and between Alice Chan (herein referred to as “Landlord”) and Don Baker (herein referred to as “Tenant”). Landlord hereby leases to Tenant certain real property situated in the City of San Francisco, State of California, commonly known as 123 Main Street and described as Two Bedroom Apartment (hereinafter called the “Premises”).

2. Term:

The term of this Lease shall be for one year commencing on September 1, 2014, and ending on August 31, 2015.

3. Rent:

Tenant shall pay to Landlord as rent for the Premises the sum of $850.00 dollars per month, on the first day of each month. Rent shall be payable without notice or demand at the address as the Landlord may designate to Tenant in writing.

4. Utilities:

Tenant shall make all arrangements and pay for all gas, heat, light, power, telephone, and other utility services supplied to the Premises and for all connection charges.

5. Hold Harmless:

Tenant shall hold Landlord harmless from and against any and all claims arising from Tenant's use or occupancy of the Premises. Except for Landlord's willful or grossly negligent conduct, Tenant hereby assumes all risk of damage to property or injury to persons in or about the Premises.

6. Default:

If Tenant shall default and breach any covenant or provision of the Lease, then the Landlord, after giving the proper notice required by law, may re-enter the Premises and remove any property and any and all persons therefrom.

7. Holding Over:

If Tenant, with the Landlord's consent, remains in possession of the Premises after expiration of this Lease, such possession shall be a tenancy from month-to-month at a rental in the amount of the last month's rent. Tenant must notify Landlord in writing at least thirty days prior to evacuating the Premises. All other provisions remain the same.

your responsibilities as a tenant

- Pay your rent on time.
- Take good care of the property.
- Tell the landlord if repairs are needed.
- Tell the landlord if you plan to leave at the end of the lease.
- Tell the landlord if you plan to leave before your lease is up. (If your landlord can't find new tenants, you may be required to keep paying rent until your lease is up.)
- Pay for any damage to the walls, floors or furniture.
- Don't make changes that the landlord must fix later.
- Be prepared to pay all the rent if your roommates move out.
- Fulfill all terms of the lease agreement.

Mr. Henry Moss
1011 Stone Hill Road
Boone, NC XXXXX

Dear Mr. Moss:

I've been a tenant in one of your apartments for the past nine months. I was suddenly laid off from my construction job yesterday. Without my regular income, I'm unable to pay monthly rent. My lease ends in three months.

Please accept this 30-day notice for me to move out of the Stone Hill Apartments at the end of December. I will keep the apartment neat and ready for you to show to new tenants.

Please answer this letter in writing so I know you received it.

I've really enjoyed living here and apologize for any inconvenience to you.

Sincerely,
John Scott

your landlord's responsibilities

- Make repairs in a reasonable amount of time.
- Keep the premises safe and sanitary.
- Enter the apartment only at agreed-upon times.
- Collect rent.
- Fulfill all terms of the lease agreement.

preparing a budget

When preparing your budget, keep in mind:

- Income
- Lifestyle
- Fixed expenses
- Flexible expenses
- Moving costs
- Moving-in costs
- The cost of furnishings

Rules of thumb:

- You should spend no more than 40% of your net income on rent payments.
- You should save 10% of your net income.
